Anouncement
Pharmacology II (PHR 481)
Fall 2016

Practical exam II (CNS exam) will be held for all students next week Sunday 23-10 and Monday 24-10-2016.
All students should attend in their specified groups, no excuses or exchanges are allowed at all. If you do not attend in your group, you will be considered absent.

For the theoretical exam: (10 marks)
Study the three topics discussed in the lab (CNS stimulants, CNS depressants and psychotropic agents), you can be asked in anything mentioned during explanation, video or practical work

For the practical exam: (10 marks)
Each student should bring an insulin syringe (100 unit), a 3cm needle, Gloves and exam report.

Exam includes:

1. Handling and injecting the frog.
2. Study the calculations

   Each student should bring his calculator, no mobile phones are allowed and no calculators will be exchanged among students.
3. Study the observation for :
   i. Strychnine (type of convulsions & its characteristics)
   ii. CNS depressants (Decrease in heart rate (HR), Decrease in respiratory rate (RR), Decrease in vitality and Loss of righting reflex)
4. Identify the Class of the drug and give an example.