

Norwich Institute for Language Education:

This course is designed especially for students from PUA and focuses on language development related to their faculty areas. The course consists of 25 hours per week of language lessons and social programmes in the evening and at weekends.