

Pharos University in Alexandria
Faculty of Financial and Administrative Sciences

Quality Unit Mission

The Unit is committed to following up the application of quality standards in the educational and institutional process. It also seeks to spread the culture of quality and performance evaluation in all elements of the educational system and the research and service activities provided by the College in light of the standards of the National Authority for Quality Assurance of Education and Accreditation.