

Presenter: Ahmed Abd elsabour:

- Bio:

Ahmed is a graduate of the Faculty of Arts, English department, Linguistics and translation, Alexandria University. He is a CELTA holder who attended a specialized course at the Faculty of Education, Alexandria University. He has wide experience working at both national and international schools in Alexandria. He has been currently working at the English Language Centre at Pharos University since 2018.

- Brief:

The workshop is about teaching grammatical items through drawing and visuals. It specially focuses on teaching state and action verbs through interactive context and board drawing. It also includes out of the box activities that participants can try out in their classes. By the end of the session, participants will leave with a set of practical activities that suit different age groups. They will also discuss challenges that they may face when using drawing in class.

