

Presenter: Mahinour Rageb:

- Bio:

Mahinour is a graduate from the Faculty of Languages and Translation, Pharos University in Alexandria (PUA). She is a CELTA holder who started as a young learners assistant at AMIDEAST. She has been working in Pharos since 2015. Mahinour is an active member in PUA English Language Centre Activity Unit. She always takes part in the Creative Writing Club. In 2017, she attended Adrian Underhill's professional development course, which helped a lot in starting her audio books project.

- Brief :

The workshop is about using dictation in English language classes. During the session, participants will be introduced to four different dictation activities. Participants will try out the activities and discuss how and when to use them in their classes. Participants will also get a chance to discuss potential problems when implementing dictation in class and brainstorm suggested solutions.

