

Presenter: Nada Awad:

- Bio:

Nada graduated from the Faculty of Arts, English Department, Linguistics and Translation section in 2013. Two years later, she took the CELTA and started teaching young adults at Pharos University in Alexandria (PUA). She is a very active member at PUA English Language Centre Activity Unit. She is responsible of the Creative Writing Club. In 2016, she took a face-to-face NILE course on advanced language and using authentic materials in the classroom.

- Brief :

Since reading can be equally challenging for students as well as teachers, this workshop aims to introduce its participants to these challenges and suggested solutions. The workshop includes techniques on how to teach a well-staged reading lesson and focuses on the difficulties learners encounter proposing a number of techniques to overcome them. It also shows the role of the teacher in directing and assisting the student towards independent, mindful reading.