

Presenter: Noha Hilmy:

- Bio :

Noha Hilmy is a CELTA holder who started her teaching career in NZ as an ECE educator. She is an English teacher, a Testing Unit rep., and a Business Course coordinator in the English Language Centre at Pharos University in Alexandria (PUA). She took many courses and workshops, and is involved in the Professional Development Unit at PUA.

- Brief :

The workshop is about integrating critical thinking skills (CT) in the ESL classrooms. The workshop answers such as “Why is it important to integrate CT skills?”, “What does CT mean?”. By the end of the workshop, participants will have left with strategies and activities to integrate in their ESL classrooms.