

ATTRIBUTES FINAL

General Attributes:

General Attributes:

The graduate holding a Bachelor degree from the Program of Turkish Language and Translation should have the following attributes:

First: Academic Attributes

The graduate should be able to:

1. Read, write and speak Turkish fluently
2. Translate specialized texts (legal, political, technical, business, etc.) from and into Turkish
3. Be competent at consecutive, simultaneous and sub-titling translation
4. Master a second language of his/her choice (French, Spanish, Italian, German or Chinese) in addition to Turkish, which is the language of specialization
5. Master the Arabic language which enables him/her to translate from and into Turkish
6. Analyze literary texts that represent different trends of thought
7. Discriminate between the linguistic structures and communicative functions of the Turkish language.
8. Develop an understanding of other cultures particularly the Western civilization
9. Identify with own national culture and identity.

Second: National and Cultural Attributes:

The graduate should be able to:

10. Interact with different cultures, as a result of studying Turkish, Arabic, and another language of his/her choice
11. Respect and accept the Other, despite his/her difference
12. Participate constructively in cultural projects