SDG2 Zero Hunger

The ability to feed the world is a key element of sustainable development. If done right, agriculture, forestry and fisheries can provide nutritious food for all. At the same time, it can ensure rural development with people at the center of the process, supporting the incomes of those who rely on agriculture.

Universities need to be able to demonstrate how they are contributing to end hunger, achieve food security and improved nutrition and promote sustainable agriculture.

- Qawafel Al Khair Drive off of PUA

In continuation of the annual tradition accustomed by Pharos University management, and implemented and followed-up by the Board of Trustees headed by Eng. Alaa Ragab, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, 7 charitable convoys (Qawafel Al Khair) were dispatched to several areas in Alexandria. The convoys included student activities supervisors, some faculty members, and many students, who participated in this charitable work with great enthusiasm. In addition to the participation and supervision of Prof. Dr. Ramadan Abu El-Ala, Vice President of the University for Community Service and Environmental Development.

The convoys covered the areas of Bahri, Souk al-Turk (Ras Al Tin Society), Abis (Al Mutadaroon Society) and (Mujib al-Sayyelin Society), Al Hadra Al Gadida, Zohour Street (Naba'a Al Hob Society), Sidi Gaber (Tariq Al Khair Society), Al Awayed (Al-Qalaa Society), and Al-Amiriya (Al Istikrar Society). This activity comes within the framework of the administration's keenness to implement its role in developing the students' spiritual and moral values. In addition to promoting the value of loyalty, sense of belonging, and societal involvement, which all were clearly reflected through the students' enthusiasm to participate, and their happiness in performing these charitable works.

- Pharos University Celebrated Orphans Day

The students and faculty members of PUA celebrated Orphans Day. The coordination was made between the Community Services and Environment Development Affairs and six charities. The ceremony was held at those charities. On 9th and 10th of April 2021, PUA formed six groups comprised of students, faculty members and coordinators of the student activities to visit those charities and give the orphans toys, gifts and clothes that had a good impact on children and staff. This activity is a part of the university's keenness to activate its role in developing the spiritual, moral and loyalty values of students as well as participating in community service. It is worth mentioning that the students were excited and happy for participating in this charity work.

The visits were divided as following:

On Friday, 9 April 2021:

- “Tarek ElKhair” Community Service, Sidi Gaber.
- “Al mutadarieun” Community Service, Rabaa El Nasria, Abis.
- “El Qalaa” Community Service, Awayed.
- “Kfalet El Yatem” Community Service, Ezbet Fathi.

On Saturday, 10 April 2021:

- “Nabaa El Hop” Community Service, El Hadra El Gadida.
- “El Estqrar” Community Service, Zawya Abd El-Qader, Al Amaria.
