

Dear ELC students,

It is important that you read the following rules and regulations carefully.

Sessions

- Your classes run twice a week. You are obliged to attend both even though one is face to face and the other is online. Attendance is taken on both sessions.
- As mentioned above, one of your sessions is face to face (on campus - in one of the ELC classes) and the other is online (on Blackboard). You can submit your answer to the Blackboard task at any time during the specified day.
- If you are registered in group A, then session one is face to face and session two is on Blackboard.
- If you are registered in group B, then session one is on Blackboard and session two is face to face.

Blackboard classes

You are enrolled on TWO different English language classes on Blackboard:

1- Collective Group:

In this class, you will attend the recorded session and you will have an exercise after each recording. Attendance is calculated on both watching the video and answering the questions in due time. If you fail to do either, you will be counted absent. You can submit your answer to the Blackboard task at any time during the specified day. Submission at a later day means you are counted absent.

2- Your Group Code Class:

In this class, you will find your writing assignments. Please make sure you submit them before the deadline; otherwise they will not be corrected, and you will also be counted absent. Attendance for the online classes are counted on both types of tasks: the one you answer in the collective class and the other in the group code class.

You can reach out to your teacher if you have any questions, but make sure to ask respectfully, and give the teacher enough time to answer.

If you have any questions related to registration or attendance, send an email to followup.elc@pua.edu.eg

Punctuality and Attendance:

- Our absence will be counted starting from your registration date. Also, your sessions will be held starting from the second week of the current semester (Sunday, 18/02/2024)
- If your online session was held on an official holiday, the deadline will be extended to an additional day.
- Forced withdrawal (FW) is applied if your absence rate reaches 25% or more in face-to-face lectures.
- Forced withdrawal (FW) is applied if your absence rate reaches 25% or more in online lectures.
- Absence Warnings for the online lectures will be published via Blackboard
- Absence Warnings for the Face-to-Face lectures will be published via Power Campus
- You MUST be in class on time and stay till the class finishes.
- If you are more than 30 minutes late for the lecture, you will be considered half-absent.

Spring 2024

- Your classes run according to the announced schedule, so you have to refer to your timetable on Power Campus to make sure you are not missing any of your classes.
- You are obliged to attend in the group assigned to you at registration. You can know the place and time of your class by visiting your power campus dashboard (if you registered via power campus) or by visiting PUA website (if you registered via the google form).
- It is important that you hear your name called by your instructor at the beginning of each class, and that you answer “Present” in a clear and loud voice.

It is important for you to check the ELC bulletin board, PUA website and your Blackboard for important announcements.

Excuses:

- You will be excused for your absence only in case of sending an appeal with a medical excuse from the university Clinic. All medical excuses should be followed up on through Room D101.
- You will also be excused for your absence in case you are traveling abroad. However, you will need to present your passport to prove your departure and arrival dates and write an appeal via your faculty.

You will be compensated for the sessions you have missed as well as quizzes in case your appeal has been approved by the Vice President of Admission and Registration.

Course work distribution:

These are the assessment tasks you are required to take during the semester:

1. Midterm exam: (20 marks)
 2. Listening test: (10 marks)
 3. Writing test: (10 marks)
 4. Speaking test: (10 marks)
 5. Final exam: (50 marks)
- All quizzes will be conducted as announced by your teacher in their agreed-on time slots in the semester and you will be notified ahead of time through Blackboard. You can always visit the PUA website and the ELC bulletin board for exam schedules.
 - In the case of absence during a test, you will need to provide a written excuse for the makeup test through your academic advisor, submitted to PUA Vice President for Admission and Registration. Once the ELC receives the approval, you will be scheduled for a makeup quiz/ exam.
